Clayton Co., Iowa, Jefferson Twp. Deeds:
Book R. p.290 -8/29/1859 F. M. Evans & wife, Elizabeth sold 80 acres to Gearhot Storck/Stork (according to deed everyone was a resident of Clayton Co).
Book B-2 p.224 3/5/1860 Gearhot Stock/Stork same land 80 acres went back to F. M. Evans. (Residents of Clayton Co., IA).
Book A-2 p.120 F. M. Evans & wife, Elizabeth to W. E. Nieman, 80 acres - 12-26-1865 (All were of Clayton Co., IA--per Deed)--Doubt that F.M.Evans lived there!
I (Doris) believe that the Deed info. regarding the residence of F.M.Evans is an error, as he was not living in Clayton Co., Iowa in 1860! There is a Frank Evans, b. c 1828 MASS & his wife, Mina, b. c 1830 MASS & children living page 956, Clayton Co., Iowa, Jefferson Twp., which is not Francis M. Evans!

John Jacob

John Jacob was born in 1632 (28 Dec 1628) in County Kent, England, where he was a member of the Established Church of England. In 1665, at the age of thirty-three, he came to Maryland as an indentured servant of James Warner, Esq., of the South River Hundred. On 2 Dec 1674 John Jacob proved his rights to 50 acres of land, "for his time of service performed". A warrent was issued for the 50 acres on 2 Mar 1675. This was the begining of a large estate on the South River.

In 1681, John Jacob married Anne Cheney. She was the daughter of Richard Cheney, a neighboring planter. Before the death of Richard Cheney, he deeded to John Jacob, "for natural love and affection", 150 acres of "Cheney's Resolution", in Anne Arundel County. In 1726 John was a witness in court over the estate of Richard Cheney. He swore then that he was about ninety-four years of age.

John Jacob died in Oct of 1726. He was buried from All Hallow's Parish on 29 Oct 1726. The early records of All Hallow's Parish contain many birth, baptisms, marraiges and burial of the Jacob's family.

John Jacob left a will dated 4 Jun 1719 and it was proved on 1 Dec 1726. By this will John Jr. recieved the parental dwelling and plantation on the South River bordering Jacob's Creek. Joseph and Benjamin were each devised 200 acres of land in Prince George's County. His wife recieved the residue of the realty and personel estate during her life. The land was then to be divided between the two younger sons, Richard and Samuel. The two daughters would recieve the personel estate.

Anne survived her husband by nearly four years. She died in the spring of 1730. She was buried from All Hallow's Parish on 1 May 1730.

John Jacob

John Jacob was born in 1632 in County Kent England, where he was a member of the Established Church of England. In 1665, at the age of thirty-three, he came to Maryland as an indentured servant of James Warner, Esq., of the South River Hundred. On 2 Dec 1674 John Jacob proved his rights to 50 acres of land, "for his time of service performed". A warrent was issued for the 50 acres on 2 Mar 1675. This was the begining of a large estate on the South River.

In 1681, John Jacob married Anne Cheney. She was the daughter of Richard Cheney, a neighboring planter. Before the death of Richard Cheney, he deeded to John Jacob, "for natural love and affection", 150 acres of "Cheney's Resolution", in Anne Arundel County. In 1726 John was a witness in court over the estate of Richard Cheney. He swore then that he was about ninety-four years of age.

John Jacob died in Oct of 1726. He was buried from All Hallow's Parish on 29 Oct 1726. The early records of All Hallow's Parish contain many birth, baptisms, marraiges and burial of the Jacob's family.

John Jacob left a will dated 4 Jun 1719 and it was proved on 1 Dec 1726. By this will John Jr. recieved the parental dwelling and plantation on the South River bordering Jacob's Creek. Joseph and Benjamin were each devised 200 acres of land in Prince George's County. His wife recieved the residue of the realty and personel estate during her life. The land was then to be divided between the two younger sons, Richard and Samuel. The two daughters would recieve the personel estate.

Anne survived her husband by nearly four years. She died in the spring of 1730. She was buried from All Hallow's Parish on 1 May 1730.

Legislative Petitions from Virginia Counties with Significant Record Losses

5. Prince William County
Part 2

Contributed by Jean Pickett Hall

This second installment of Prince William petitions moves us closer to the 19th century. Two divorces enter the records, a wife seeking legal separation from an errant husband, a husband seeking to sever bonds to an errant wife. More women's names, some seventeen, appear in the list of tax delinquents; here the legible handwriting of a clerk won Mrs. Hall's gratitude. Seeing original signatures on a petition is a gratifying experience, but they pose multiple problems. A request for augmentation of funds for the Bank of Alexandria is a new note in these records. An expanding economy is finding the old tobacco vouchers issued at warehouses an outmoded means of doing business. Requests for bridges show the beginning of the decline of ferries in Virginia; ferries could not navigate frozen rivers. Construction of a canal indicates a growing emphasis on transportation. A need for towns as markets becomes more evident, one petition mentioning main roads and distances in this part of the commonwealth. The parish, once the dispenser of welfare, is in decline; the Dittengen Glebe is to be sold for the support of the poor. One notes that more middle names and initials are entering these records.

Readers are reminded that the abstracts of petitions presented in these pages are only the earliest for each county. Mrs. Hall plans to present all the Virginia Legislative Petitions in book form, Deo volente. She gratefully acknowledges the permission of their custodian, Dr. Louis Manarin, to publish these records.

November 2, 1788 Freeholders and inhabitants of the County of Prince William petition the House of Delegates to establish an additional tobacco inspection station and storage facilities in or adjoining the Town of Dumfries on the lands or lots of John McCrae. The need for additional facilities as well as the proposed location is justified in this petition. Signatures are:

■November 14, 1795 The petition of Jacob Egborn asks the House of Delegates for a divorce from his wife, the former Delilah Williams of Norfolk. He was married to her in the year 1786 and they lived together for about three years thereafter. Later she left him and he learned within two months prior to the petition that she was in the Town of Dumfries living in a state of unrestrained lewdness.

A certificate follows the petition which is signed by inhabitants of Dumfries certifiying that they have known the petitioner, Jacob Egborn, for a considerable time and that he is a man of good character. They certify that they are acquainted with the woman mentioned in the petition and believe that which has been stated is true.

Another certificate is also included in this file, signed by Wm Barnes, a justice of Prince William County, showing that Charles Benson had come before him and made oath that he had known Dilley Egborn, the wife of Jacob Egborn, to be a resident of Dumfries for upwards of two years during which time she had been generally reputed a prostitute. Wm Barnes also stated that he had on the ninth of Febuary 1795 accompanied Jacob Egborn in search of his wife and on that night found her in bed with a man. Signatures are:

■November 23, 1795 The petition of Nathaniel Ellicott and Isaac Mcpherson states that they own lands lying on the south side of Occoquan River at that part of the river where the Occoquan Mills are erected. They feel the public needs a bridge erected across that river especially in the winter season when the ferries are frequently frozen up. The petitioners are willing to undertake the project of building and maintaining a bridge but cannot afford the expense. John Hooe who owns land directly across the river has agreed to grant the petitioners the privilege of using that part of his land necessary for erecting the bridge and cutting a road through leading to the bridge. The petitioners ask that the House of Delegates grant them the privilege of building the bridge described above and request compensation for the erection and maintenance of same. They propose that this money be raised by levying a toll on all persons, horses and carriages using the bridge. This request is concurred with by a number of citizens as follows but some may not be residents since the petition mentions that residents of both Loudon and Fairfax Counties will benefit from this project. ■November 11, 1796 A petition of William Linton and William Carter, inspectors of the Quantico Warehouse, to the legislature of Virginia states that in 1793 the Dumfries inspection of tobacco was discontinued and that no inspection would take place after the 10th of August 1794. However, there was not sufficient storage space in Quantico Warehouse to contain half the tobacco stored in Dumfries Warehouse so the inspectors at Quantico were required to continue attending to delivery and shipment of the tobacco from both inspections until the spring of 1795 when the tobacco was removed from Dumfries according to the act directing discontinuance of that inspection station. They ask for compensation for the additional work performed during the period of transition. No other names mentioned.

■November 12, 1796 A petition of Thomas Harrison, late sheriff of the County of Prince William, states that on November 12, 1795, he paid $2058.75 into the treasury for taxes collected by him in said county for 1794 and on September 28, 1796, he paid $2117.83 for the year 1795. The auditors would not allow him the benefit of two and one half per cent on either collection according to the late act of assembly because the first payment was not made exactly at the time it became due. The payment was made a very short time after the due date, and the petitioner asks the General Assembly to authorize the auditor to allow him the two and one half per cent on the amount of tax payments made by him. No other names mentioned.

■November 19, 1796 Sundry inhabitants of the Town of Dumfries and proprietors of shares in the Quantico Creek Company, express a desire to expand their services beyond that which was first planned in order to make the creek more useful and to make the advantages permanent. They believe that a much larger sum than ten thousand dollars could easily be procured if the tolls were proportionatly extended. The amount of ten thousand dollars was the original amount for opening and extending the navigation of Quantico Creek. The owners of the above company now request approval by the House of Delegates to raise a sum of thirty thousand dollars each, and to authorize the president and directors of said company to strengthen the navigation of said creek by a canal. They request authorization be granted to the president and directors of the company to agree with the owners of any lands or sunken grounds through which such canal shall pass and that a suitable value be offered. In the event of a disagreement or other reasons, they ask that the value should be estimated by a jury as directed and prescribed by the act entitled "An act for opening and extending the Potomack River." Other interesting details such as a request for the erection of locks on the canal are included in the petition. The petitioners ask for authorization of a schedule of tolls as follows:

TOLLS:

For every Pipe or Hogshead of wine, oil, Rum or other Spirits, 30 cents;
For every Hhd of Molasses, Cider or beer, 15 cents;
For every tierce barrel or smaller cask or quantity in proportion, 15 cents;
For every Hogshead of tobacco, 30 cents;

Mary Jacobs

Richard Jacobs' first wife was Priscilla Shelton. This is proven by the Bibles in possession of his decendants as stated in the book, A Genealogical History of The Descendants of Moses Mordecai Jacobs by Lonnie Jacobs Davis, published by Robinson's Directories, Inc., Hillsdale, Michigan, C1975. However, Priscilla must be deceased by 24 Oct 1811 as per Mason Co., Ky., Deed made 24 Oct. 1811 where Richard Jacobs and Mary his wife, sell twenty-five acres to Sarah Davis, unless Priscilla and Mary are the same person.

Mrs. Davis states that the only two children of Richard's that she can identify are Sanford and George Shelton Jacobs. The Bibles Mrs. Davis used were those of Richard (son of Sanford & Mrs. Davis' direct ancestor) and George Shelton Jacobs. Mrs. Davis' father was Henry Bennington Jacobs, son of Richard Wesley and Elizabeth (Adamson) Jacobs. As far as I can ascertain, George Shelton was the only child of Richard's & Priscilla's, that named a child Priscilla. Perhaps Priscilla died after his birth, and from Sarah (Jacobs) Crugan b 1805 on the children's mother could have been Mary. Most all the other children after George names a daughter Mary.

The last proven daughter that is recorded as being married in Brown Co. was Lydia / Lydia Ann Jacobs to John Laney, 28 Sept. 1835.

Mary Jacobs household is near Stephen McKinley (Leaffpha Jacobs) in the 1840 census and that of Samuel J. Pickerill all on page 167. Dennis Pickerill (Dorcas Jacobs) and Garrett Crugan (Sarah Jacobs) are listed on page 174 and George Shelton Jacobs on page 171. Mary Jacobs and George Shelton Jacobs are the only two listed that surname in the county in 1840, all the above in Jackson twp.

Nancy Jacobs was married to Thomas Hatfield, 31 May 1838, by Allen D. Beasley, M.G., in Hamilton Co., Ind., Book 1833-1843, Pg. 150. It said her mother Mary gave consent and Stephen McKinley [husband of Leaffpha] was the witness.

There is a Thomas Hatfield with a son, age 15-20 in the 1830, Byrd twp., Bro. Co., Oh. Census, next door to the Samuel & William Pickerill families. The son would fit the age of Nancy's husband in the 1840 census. In the 1840 census Thomas & Nancy Hatfield are living one house from Fanny (Jacobs) Lane, four houses from Sarah (Jacobs) and Garrett Cruzan, and six houses from Dennis and Dorcas (Jacobs) Pickerill.

I believe that Mary was Richard's wife and the mother of many of the children. Richard and Mary probably moved to Hamilton Co., Indiana after their daughter Lydia's marriage in 1835, and Richard died before the marriage of Nancy. One of the reasons for my thinking that Richard probably went to Hamilton County is that Mary has an established household and is not living with any of the children in 1840. Perhaps if he were not alive she would have remained in Brown Co. with the children that remained there at that time.

Perhaps something would show up if someone looked at the LDS films for taxes, deeds or other court records for Hamilton Co., Indiana between 1830 & 1840.

Nancy and Thomas Hatfield are not in 1850 census in any of the nearby counties. Perhaps they moved on to Illinois + Missouri as some of the family did. There are four Thomas Hatfields listed for Indiana in 1850 tho.

Upton Jenkins (Matilda Jacobs) are in Clinton Co., Indiana and Dennis Pickerill are in Hamilton Co., Indiana, in Cicero in 1830. They were not a very great distance apart.

After writing the above I went to Cincinnati and checked the census for 1850, 1860 + 1870 Hamilton Co., Indiana and nearby counties.

I found Mary living in Clinton Co., Indiana, adjacent on the northern part, to Hamilton Co., in Russiaville, with son William Jacobs, b. Ohio, age 21, Blacksmith, his wife and infant daughter. Mary is sixty-nine years old (b. ca 1781) and born in Virginia. This William fits age-wise as the youngest son in Mary's 1840 census — 1825-1830. Eleven houses away is Richard Jacobs, 28 yrs. old, b. Ohio Blacksmith, & his wife & children. He fits into Mary's 1840 census as the 1820-1825 male.

Mary must have died after the 1850 census and before the 1860 census. William moved to Cicero, Hamilton Co. by the 1860 Census, where Stephen McKinley and other members of Richard's family live. Richard is in Cicero by 1860, also, living next door to Stephen McKinley + Leaffpha. Richard has a daughter, Mary, but he also named one India. At this time all what appears to be members of Richards' (Sr.) family are living in or near Cicero (1850), Jackson twp., except Sanford and Dorcas (Jacobs) Grissom who are living nearby in area of Boxley, Adams twp., a short distance northwest.

On the other side of Richard Jacobs is (in 1860) Morris Jacobs, age 33, b. Ohio, ca 1827, and he could possibly be Richard's children as well. He isn't listed to be Sanford's son, but he did name a son Martin. I really don't know about this. Not on Mary's census in 1840.

On 1850 census there is a Buddy Jacobs, b. Ohio, 3 1/12 yrs, born ca 1819 living Hamilton Co., Jackson twp., has a first daughter named Mary. He is living next door to Wm. H. Pickerill. He is in close proximity to the family in 1860 & 1870 census also. I believe he is the older male in Mary's 1840 household b. 1810-1820.

There is a female in Mary's 1840 census born between 1820 & 1825. I believe this to be Dorcas Jacobs, who married William Grissom, 9 Sept. 1840, in Hamilton Co., and Buddy Jacobs attests to the marriage. On 1850 she and William are living in the area of Boxley in Adams twp., near Sanford. But she is in Hamilton Co. — by 1840 marriage and possibly on Mary's census, but Sanford is in Adams Co., Ohio, Spriggtwp. & his last son Joseph is born in Adams/Brown in ca 1846.

George Shelton & Mary are the only two Jacobs in 1840 in Hamilton Co., these two, Buddy & Dorcas fit Mary's census along with William & Richard.

There are others in Richards, Sr. descendants that marry Grissoms.

Pg. 5

George Shelton named a son, Buddy, b. 28 Feb 1840, who didn't survive til the 1850 Census. Perhaps he named him after the Buddy born ca 1819 that I believe is Richard's son.

In the 1870 Census Richard's (Sr.) youngest son, William is living next door to Asa Jacobs (Rachel), son of George Shelton in Noblesville, Hamilton Co., Ind.

Many members of the family seem to be in Noblesville, Hamilton Co., Indiana by 1870.

I am also listing Elizabeth Jacobs b. 17 Oct 1814, d. 8 March 1845 and married Isaac Parker 17 Jan 1833 Brown Co., as a possible daughter of Richard. She fits the census for Richard & she is buried in the Hickory Ridge Cemetery, Hunt- & there are many Shelton's buried there. Elizabeth's husband marries 2nd Ex (Evaline) Shelton & they move to Missouri by 1870 census. Can't find Elizabeth & Isaac in 1840 Census.

Page Jacobs is another likely candidate for a son of Richard. He gives oath for Matilda Jacobs marriage to Uptongenken's. Duncan Jacobs Pickerill names a son Page Jacobs Pickerill.

Maybe not very heavy evidence, but hey, isn't it fun guessing?

The frame first built, was blown down by a storm, and lay a ruin for months, but friends from the other church came to its rescue; it was re-erected and finished, and has been in use ever since.

Both these churches have been greatly weakened by the emigration of their members to the West, especially to Illinois and Kansas, as well as to the towns and cities in Southern Ohio. Hence the combined membership is not as great as it was in 1811, and their financial ability is probably still weaker.

CHAPTER XVII.

Biographical Sketches.

Henry Oursler.—Henry Oursler's great grandfather, Edward Oursler, was an Englishman, while his great grand-father on his mother's side was Irish, and named Patrick McKinley. His grand-father's name was Charles Oursler, and his grandmother's maiden name was Martha McKinley. They reared a family of nine children, three sons and six daughters. One of the sons, named Archibald, was the father of Henry Oursler. Archibald Oursler was born in Baltimore county, Maryland, and was taken, when quite young, by his parents to Pennsylvania, where they settled for a short time. They then removed to a small village, called Buffalo, in Putnam county, W. Va. Indians were plenty there then. They next moved to Limestone, Kentucky, and settled near Washington in that State. Indians were still plenty there. About 1794 or '95, Mr. Charles Oursler removed to Ohio, where he soon after died. As before stated, he raised a family of nine children. Their names were Joseph, Archibald (father of Henry Oursler), Charles, Ruth, Martha, Elizabeth, Mary, Catherine and Margaret. Ruth married a Mr. Jacobs, who afterwards died. She married for a second husband a Mr. Hayman. Martha married Caleb Hurd. Elizabeth married John Lynn. Mary married Samuel Neal, and Catherine married John Jones. Charles removed to Putnam county, Indiana, in 1834, where he died. Joseph died on a trading boat, on his way down the river. Archibald was born May 11, 1781, and married Rachel Riggs, April, 1806. She died March 2, 1809. He married for a second wife, Malinda True, February 6, 1812. This lady was born May 8, 1788. Mr. Oursler reared a family of nine children. By his first marriage he had two sons, John and Charles. John was born April 6, 1807; married Elizabeth Parish. He died October 28, 1863. Charles was born March 21, 1809; married Mahala Howland, by whom he had one son. His wife died and the son was killed at Georgetown, Brown county, O., July 4, 1858, by the premature discharge of a cannon. Charles Oursler's second wife was Margaret Jones, by whom he has two sons and a daughter; all remain with him. He now resides near Harnersville, Brown county, O. Archibald Oursler, by his second marriage, reared a family of seven children, whose names are Jane T., Thomas, Joseph, Mary, Martha Ann and Nancy Elizabeth Oursler. Jane T. was born November 25, 1812; married Leonard Brooks, who has since deceased. She is now a widow, and lives in Jefferson township. Thomas, born September 1, 1814, married Mary Jane Neal, who is now deceased. He is now a widower; resides in Greene township. Joseph, born May 1, 1817, married Harriet Westbrook. He died September 28, 1879. His widow lives in Jefferson township. Mary, born February 22, 1822. She never married, and now lives with her brother Thomas. Martha Ann, born April 6, 1824; married Noah Tracy. They reside ¾ of a mile north of Rome. Nancy Elizabeth, born September 23, 1828. She never married; died September 5, 1876. Henry Oursler, the subject of this sketch, was born August 11, 1820. He married Elizabeth Puntney, November 7, 1850. They are the parents of five children, whose names are Anna Belle, Ellie Jane, James Archibald, Martha Malinda, Charles Joseph. Anna Bell was born January 21, 1852; married Hosea Moore Wikoff, June 16, 1875. They reside in Cincinnati. Ellie Jane was born December 14, 1857. James Archibald was born August 13, 1861. Martha Malinda was born March 22, 1867. Charles Joseph was born August 13, 1869. These four children live with their parents. Henry Oursler is a leading and influential citizen, well and favorably known throughout the county. He has almost continuously been the recipient of some position in his township or county, since he arrived at the years of man's estate. Besides the many township offices he has held, he has filled the office of Recorder of the county two terms, serving from 1849 to 1855. He was elected County Auditor in 1858, serving one term, and was next elected Probate Judge in 1863, served two years and resigned. Mr. Oursler was appointed deputy surveyor of the Virginia Military District in 1850. In 1855, he was admitted to the bar as a practitioner of law, which, however, he never followed as a profession.

John K. Stout.—The grand-father of the subject of this sketch, Obadiah Stout, was a native of New Jersey, where he married a German lady. From there he moved to Redstone, Pa., where he lived some years; then went to Blue Licks, Ky., and carried on salt works and kept a ferry. About 1796 or '97 he came to Adams county, and settled at the confluence of two streams, about ¾ of a mile back from Rome, near where the West Union road crosses it. This farm is now the property of Noah Tracey. The creek on which Mr. Stout settled is called Stout's run, and the two branches that unite and form this run at the point where he settled, are called the east and west forks of Stout's run. Here Obadiah Stout, who was probaby the first settler in Greene township, cleared out a farm and reared a family, which consisted of ten children, seven sons and three daughters, named Obadiah, Robert B., Susannah, William, John K., Josiah, Decia, Elisha C., Uriah Jackson, Bennet. Uriah died when seventeen months old. The other nine grew to years of maturity, and all married but Elisha. They are now all deceased but John K. John K. Stout was born July 27, 1808. He married Miss Frances Drennan, April 25, 1832, who died April 27, 1842. He married for a second wife, Elizabeth Taylor Alice Waite, October 3, 1843. This lady died June 6, 1851. He married for his third wife, Caroline Daikon, June 8, 1853, who died March 26, 1873. Mr. Stout, by his first marriage, raised three sons, David D., W. B. H., and Elisha. David lives in Kentucky, owns stock in two steamboats, and is Captain of one of them. W. H. B. Stout, the second son, lives in Lincoln, Nebraska; is a builder and contractor, who by his enterprise, has accumulated a large property. By his second marriage, Mr. Stout raised three children, one son and two daughters. They were named Elizabeth, Mary and Alonzo M. Elizabeth married the Rev. Jonathan Stewart, and lives in Rome. The other two remain at home and are unmarried. There were two children by his third marriage, both sons; they were named Homer D. and Henry W. Homer is married, lives in Aberdeen, Brown county, O.; engaged in telegraphing. Henry W. remains with his father on the farm. Mr. Stout started in life while a young man, with a small store in 1829, on Stout's run, where George Dobson now lives; after keeping here a year, he removed to where Rome now stands. At the end of a year he took into partnership with him his brother William. Two years afterwards, William bought the interest of his brother in the store, and carried it on alone until his decease twenty years afterward. After selling his interest in the store to his brother William, Mr. Stout bought a farm above Rome, but not liking it, he swapped it for his present farm near, but below the village. He afterwards removed to Manchester where he sold goods for a year; then returned to his farm again, where he has since lived. By his industry and perseverance, Mr. Stout has accumulated a fine property. Besides giving each of his children a fair set out in life, he still owns one hundred acres of splendid land on the Ohio river bottom, adjoining the village of Rome on the west. This farm is in a high state of cultivation, adorned with excellent buildings, where he now resides, surrounded with every comfort that man could desire, quietly enjoying the fruits of his laborious and well spent life, with the respect of all who know him.

Wash. Cross.—This gentleman is of Irish descent. His grand-father, Richard Cross, was born in Pennsylvania, where he married. At an early day he came to Adams county, and settled about a mile south-east of Winchester. He reared a family of seven children, three sons and four daughters. One of these sons, named Richard, married Elizabeth Smith; they reared a family of four children, three sons and one daughter. These children were named Wash, Rebecca Ann, Joseph C. and James S. All are married and have families. Wash, the oldest, and who is the subject of this sketch, was born in Winchester, Adams county, on the 12th day of April, 1828. He came to Rome in the spring of 1856, where he has since carried on the blacksmithing and wagon making business. He does nothing but first class work, and his wagons are sold in distant parts of the country, as well as at home. In religion, Wash. Cross is a free thinker; in politics, a Republican. He has always been a strong advocate of the equal rights of man without regard to race, color or sex.

Daniel Kenyon.—The maternal grand-father of the subject of this sketch, Aaron Stratton, was a native of New Jersey, where he grew to manhood and married. About 1800, he removed to Lewis county, Ky., and settled near Clarksburg. Mr. Stratton, who was a man of enterprise, engaged in the manufacture of salt, which he followed for a number of years, by which he made a considerable fortune and owned many slaves. He bought Steele's Survey, a body of some 700 acres of land, on the Ohio side of the river, in Irish Bottom. He reared a family of ten children, one son and nine daughters. He made it a rule, upon the marriage of a child, to present it among other things, with a colored man and woman. His second daughter, Sarah, married Jonathan Kenyon, a native of Vermont. This daughter did not believe much in slavery, and at her marriage preferred something else than slaves. Mr. Stratton gave her instead, 130 acres of this Irish Bottom land. She and her husband settled on this land, cleared it up, and lived and died there. Mr. Kenyon, who was a regular lawyer, proved to be a very useful man to the neighborhood. He was able to properly draw all their instruments of writings, &c., and did not encourage litigations in law. He reared a family of seven children, all sons, named Aaron, Samuel, Thompson, Daniel, James, William and Benjamin. These sons all grew up to manhood, married and raised families. James and Benjamin went to California, where they are engaged in

Besides the three children, he is survived by one grandchild, Bliss Cartwright, and one brother, John G. Bradley of Bentonville. Burial was in the IOOF Cemetery.—ACR, 04-13-1916

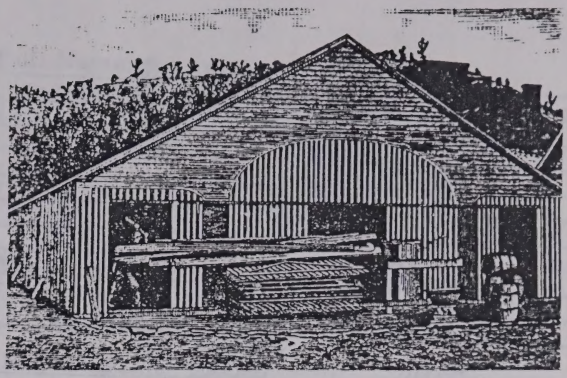
WILLIAMSON, one of the most prominent citizens of Seaman, Ohio, where he had lived for the past ten years conducting the Spargur Hotel, was stricken with heart failure May 30, 1916 and died almost immediately. Mr. Williamson had just introduced the speaker of the evening, H. G. Davis, and had taken his seat, nothing unusual being noted in his condition, until he sank over in his chair. He was married to Lizzie Foster, daughter of Susan and Robert Foster, and is survived by the widow and two daughters, Lucy Wilson of Newtown and Lida, at home. Henry Clay must have held a special fondness for Maysville. He chose the Maysville-Lexington road bill as the cornerstone of his internal improvements program, and challenged President Andrew Jackson, who vetoed the bill. He was a frequent visitor to Maysville as he traveled home to Lexington from Washington, D.C. In September, 1815, he stopped at Maysville after signing the Treaty of Ghent. In May, 1825, Clay was entertained at a public dinner and in his thank-you note remarked about the criticism he had received over recent political decisions and gave a special thanks to his Maysville hosts in light of this. It was on this trip that he played the violin enroute to Lexington and the news traveled of his prowess as a violinist. In 1827 twenty-five hundred attended a Maysville public dinner for Clay. The year before his death, which occurred in 1852, he stayed at the Lee House in Maysville. By his signature, where a place is reserved for the guest's residence, the entry reads, "Heaven soon, I hope." Another Maysville hotel, the Goddard House, was the last building he was in, living in Kentucky. He arrived here on his way to Washington, going directly from the hotel to the boat, and dying while at the Capitol.

James Jacobs was born in Prince William County, Virginia in 1805, and came to Maysville in 1826 with his three brothers, John, Lewis and Benjamin. They engaged in the manufacture of plows on Fourth Street, and built four brick houses on Third Street just west of Plum for their homes. Later on, James operated a foundry at the northeast corner of Second and Limestone. Men of means for the times, their homes were well built, and stand today, representative of the 1830 architecture of our town.



This was the third market house built in Maysville. The first one was on Sutton Street, built in 1811, and on July 10 of that year, laws were passed regulating the rules for the market. Wednesday and Saturday were market days, and George Mitchell was the first marketmaster, receiving fifty cents a day for his services. By 1825 the residents in the eastern part of the city desired a market be built nearer them, so the second house was put on Limestone Street. After a trial of using two markets for a year, it was proposed to have one central house, and the one pictured was erected on Main Cross Street. Soon Main Cross was called Market Street. In 1883, the old house had served its purpose, and it was decided to tear it down. This evoked many memories of early Maysville, and some animosity toward those who would destroy a landmark. Jacob Mower, of Lewis County, recalled that he had done the brick work on the building in 1829, and that he had watched them put a bottle of whiskey in the cornerstone, and that it was "pure whiskey of the best quality and over two years old." There must have been a great treasure hunt by the workmen as the building came down!

Margaret,

Here is Cheryl's response. I noticed in scrolling down that there was another Jacobs connection. I hi-lighted it in blue. Do you know what Jacobs this is?

Well, I am worn out. Just went back out and weeded and planted and I have had it in the yard for today. We are going to a Marvin Hamlish concert tonight and I need to get some of this dirt off me.

Dear June and Margaret,

How's this? (grin) I posted an inquiry at the McKinley family board at Ancestry.com about a month ago about some McKinleys who married into my Edgington family, but no replies have been posted. I also heard from another Edgington researcher who referred me to Linda Sams' website, where some of this info came from. I have "redded" Cynthia's immediate family.

I'm happy to share what I can! Thanks to you both, also, for helping me collect parental, sibling, and descendant info on folks who married into the Edgingtons. I have GOBS of Edgington information (although most of it undocumented, except for my direct line). Those southern Ohio Edgingtons were a prolific bunch, I'll say that for 'em! Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need further info on any you come across. If I don't have 'em, I can probably find someone who DOES.

Happy hunting, ladies!

Cheryl in Waco
